ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The International Corrections and Prisons Association (ICPA) invites the global corrections community to its 28th Annual Conference, "Partnerships in a Modern Corrections Landscape: Responding to Increasing Growth and Complexity."

The conference will examine the pressures of rising prisoner numbers and the growing complexity of needs among people in custody and under community supervision. Delegates will be invited to consider how corrections can best respond to these challenges through collaboration and partnerships, including with government agencies and social services, research bodies, and not-for-profit organisations.

Exhibition Space Access

The exhibition areas will be located in high-traffic zones near the plenary and breakout session rooms. These spaces will serve as the central hub for all conference breaks, including morning tea, lunch, and afternoon tea.

Dedicated time slots will be scheduled within the conference program to allow attendees to visit the exhibition areas and engage with exhibitors.

 Hosted Breaks

Morning and afternoon coffee/tea breaks will be held in the Exhibition Hall. Major Sponsors can elect to sponsor one morning or afternoon tea break (30 minutes), and during this time, you will receive the following:

- Acknowledgement in the program as Sponsor of the Tea Break
- Acknowledgement by the MC/s in the plenary or workshop rooms.
- An opportunity to place branded catering items on catering stations throughout the exhibition hall (at the sponsor's cost).
- Logo on signage on catering stations in the Exhibition Hall.

*Private Networking Opportunities

Major Sponsors have the opportunity to host a private networking evening event for conference attendees. These events are organized by, and at the cost of, the sponsor. ICPA will support through the provision of registration lists and management of invitations and RSVPs.
